The Gang Go Online!

It's a Saturday afternoon in the Club House and Brains had been sat at his computer for hours!

"What are you looking at?"
asked the rest of the Gang.

"Did you know we have our own website?"
said Brains.

"Does that mean we are famous?"
the Omega Twins asked.

"I think we are!" said Brains.
"Come and look at this!"

"There is a section here that is all about us!"
said Brains.

Our favourite hobbies, what our special skills are,
and even our favourite games" Brains explained.

"What does it say about me?" asked Megabyte.

"It says you love slurping soup and cleaning
your teeth!" said Brains.

"I do, I do!" said Megabyte.

"Oh, look at this!" said Brains.

"There is even a book section that has all of our adventures stories!"

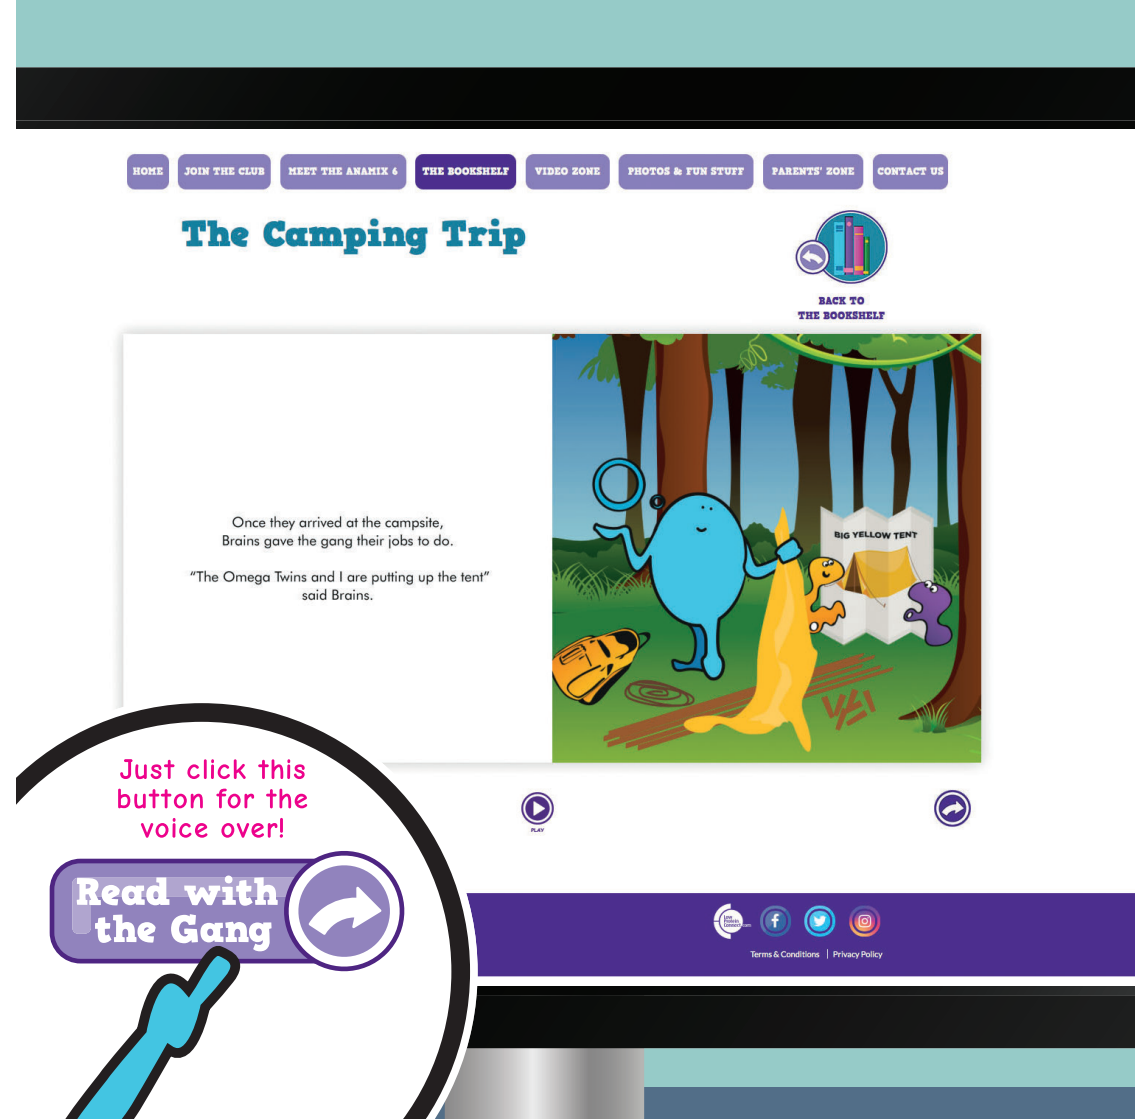

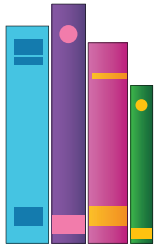

"My favourite adventure was when we all went on a camping trip" said Bones. "Is that there too?"

"It is, it is!" said Brains.

He then clicked a button on the screen.

"Listen to this" said Brains. "We can have our stories read aloud to us too!"

"Brilliant!" said the rest of the Anamix 6.

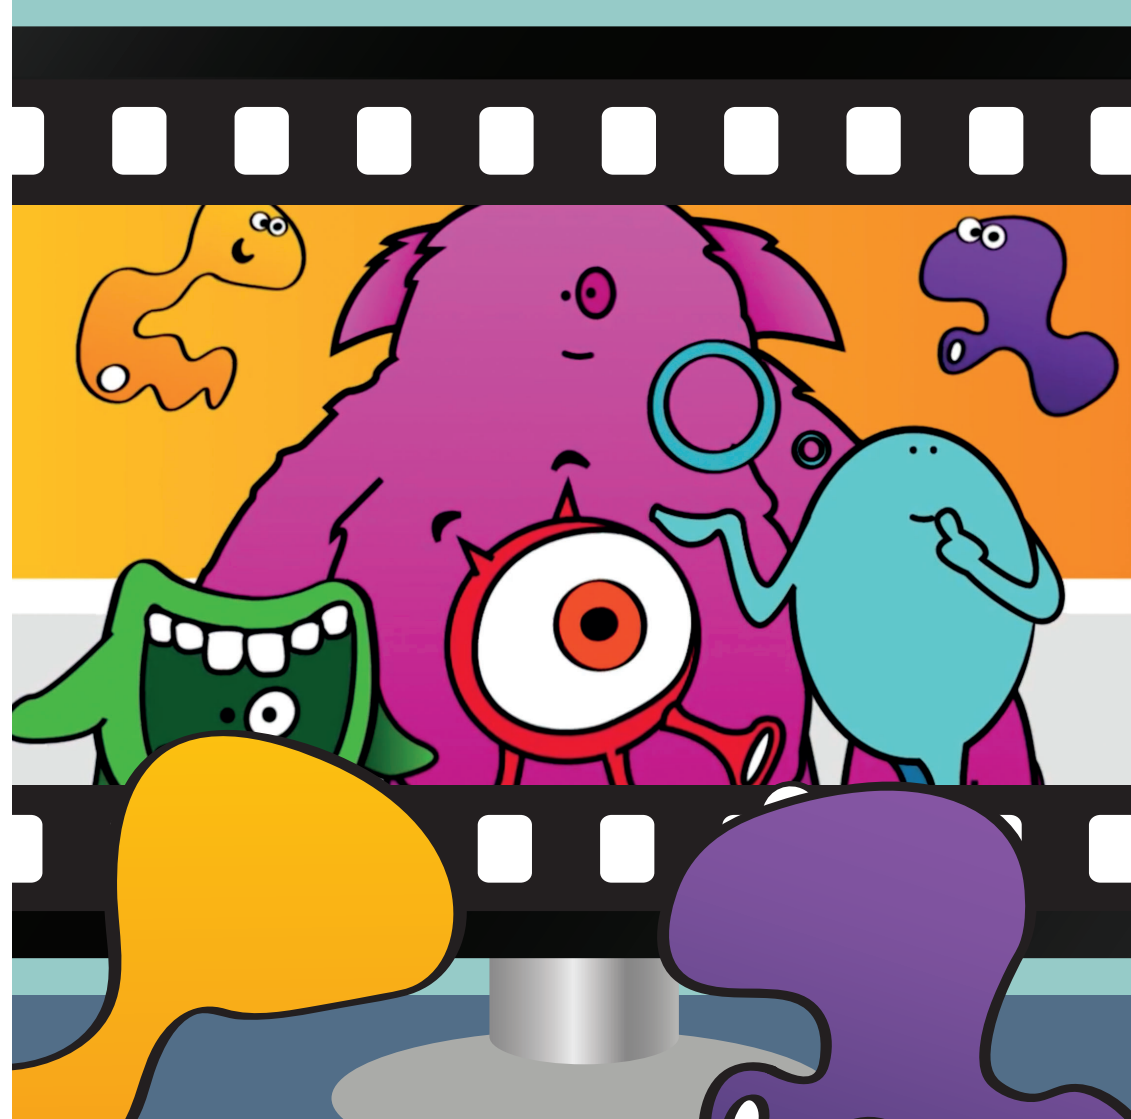

"We definitely are famous!" said Brains.

"Why, what have you seen now?"
said the Anamix 6.

Brains showed them the Video Zone on the computer. "There are films all about us too!
Lot's of films and lots of adventures!"

"What about our sleep over? Is there a video about that?" said Big Eye.

"Oh yes, and loads more too!"
said Brains.

"Oh look, there's my Food Invaders Game!"
said Big Eye, 'I'm really good at playing this!"

"And even my Mega Maze game!" said Megabyte.

"And pictures to colour in, puzzles, there is even a section for competitions! said Brains.

"I wonder what we can win?"

"We love winning things!" said the Omega Twins.

Lives:

Then Brains clicked on to a section called 'The Parents' Zone'.

"This is for Mums and Dads" said Brains. "It tells them lots of interesting things about our special diet and other information that is really useful."

"I hope all the Mums and Dads of our club members look at this page" said Bones.

"And leave all the fun stuff for us!" shouted the rest of the Anamix 6.

Then Brains, who was the cleverest of the Anamix 6, downloaded and printed out lots of the pictures and puzzles for the gang. "We've got dot-to-dots, word searches, and party invitations too!" he said.

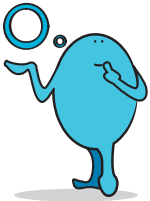

"Are we having a party?" said Big Eye.

"We are now, because we are famous!" said Bones.

Why not send us your pictures and drawings to go on the Anamix 6 website and you could be famous too!
